WHITE WINES

175ml 250ml Bottle

2022 Organic Macabeo ^{V Ve} £6.50 £9.25 £25

Familia Castaño, Murcia, Spain

2021 Cafayate Torrontés ^{V Ve} £7.50 £10.50 £28.50

Kaiken Terroir Series, Salta, Argentina

One of our best selling white wines since first opening in Forest Row, Torrontés is a powerhouse of a grape variety, scented with grapefruit, jasmine, papaya and layer upon layer of fruity, floral goodness. This is the ideal wine to pair with our spicy, aromatic dishes and the perfect palate cleanser. Grown almost exclusively in Argentina at super high altitudes,

2021 'I Muri' Bianco ^V £7.50 £10.50 £28.50

Vigneti del Salento, Puglia, Italy

An blend of Malvasia and the wonderfully named Bombino Bianco grapes, from Puglia, the hot and sunny region in the heel of the boot of Italy. Peach, stone fruit and citrus characterise the wine, it is a glass of Italian sunshine.

2021 Pinot Gris Réserve ^V £9.10 £13 £35

Cave de Hunawih, Alsace, France

Forget everything you know about bland, mass produced pinot grigio. Pinot Gris is the very same variety, but allowed to ripen fully on the vine, leading to rich, unctuous flavours of ripe peach, pear and lemon with a touch of floral aromatics. Perfect with our spicier dishes.

2021 'Sossego' Vinho Regional Alentejano Branco ^{V S} £7.60 £11 £29.50

Herdade do Peso, Alentejo, Portugal

Sossego translates roughly as tranquillity, and is said to evoke the peacefulness of the Alentejo countryside, and according to the winemaker, especially the feeling one has after a long lunch with good friends and plenty of wine. A blend of native Alentejo varieties, this is a fragrant wine notes of with ripe lemon, lime blossom and a hint of tropical pineapple and mango. Delicious on its own, or an easy pairing with most foods.

2021 'Maximin' Pinot Blanc £40

Maximin Grünhaus, Maximin, Mosel, Germany

Another iconic producer, this time in the Mosel, in Germany. If you haven't tried German wine before (or if you have and it had a questionable big brand name on the label and you weren't a fan) give this a go. Decidedly complex with notes of pomelo and grapefruit, pear, quince and a little spicy white pepper on the finish.

Our wines have been carefully chosen and where possible they are vegetarian, vegan and sustainably produced. All of our wines are transported from the winery to our door carbon-neutral.

125ml servings are available upon request.

2019 Disobedience by Francis Mallmann Red Blend ^{V Ve S} £45

Kaiken, Mendoza, Argentina

A collaboration between legendary chef Francis Mallmann and the winemaker responsible for some of the best wines coming out of South America today, Aurelio Montes. Having worked on menus together many times, this is their first winemaking project together and hopefully not the last. After blind tasting various wines they settled on a blend of just over half malbec, bolstered with a big dose of cabernet sauvignon, softened with a touch of merlot. The big bells-and-whistles brother to Kaiken Ultra, should you fancy something a little more unique and special.

2019 Barossa Valley Shiraz ^V £47.50

Peter Lehmann The Barossan, South Australia

Peter Lehmann is widely regarded as one of the saviours of the Barossa Valley. In 1979 with 33 vintages under his belt, he walked away from his stable job at a cooperative winery to make wine for a group of independent, family growers who otherwise had nowhere to send their grapes after a bumper harvest. It is thought that without his help the Barossa would have lost a huge chunk of the old vines that make it the region it is today. The Barossan is named after Lehmann, who was the quintessential Barossan, and this is a quintessential Barossa Shiraz. Big, bold flavours of dark, ripe fruit are layered with chocolate, spice and tobacco. This is a full bodied wine with velvety tannins and depths you can sink into.
